NOTICE – ABSENT VOTER BALLOTS

September 25, 2020

As of today, Caseville Township has yet to received the ballots for the November 3, 2020 General Election from the County Clerk's office.

As soon as our office receives the ballots, all absentee ballots will be sent to voters as soon as possible. Our standard delivery method is by the United States Postal Service.

If a voter wishes, the absentee ballot may be picked up in person at the Township Hall. Please note: You may only pick up the ballot addressed to you. Proper identification will be required at that time to receive your ballot.

Once completed by the voter, you may return by mail or use the drop boxes in the front or rear of the Township Hall.

Thank you for your patience.

Michelle Stirrett
Caseville Township Clerk
